Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, }
No. 1102 Hull Street, } Mr. T. Parke Howle, after a long illness, died at the residence of his father, Mr. E. B. Howle, No. 113 East Tenth Street, last night about 9 o'clock, in his thirty-fourth year.

Mr. Howle was a well-known young man. He leaves his wife, mother and father.

Mr. Howle had been a sufferer for a long time, and spent some time in Darlington, S. C., for his health.

He was a druggist by profession, but had recently worked at the Locomotive Works, believing that such work would do to help him in his trouble. It was without avail, however, and about six weeks ago he was taken to his room.

The funeral will be from the Presbyterian Church on Monday at 10 o'clock noon, and the burial will be in the Cypress Hills cemetery. The services and the following gentlemen will act as pall-bearers: Messrs. Thomas Vincent, Anna Cass, W. H. Washington, George Hayn, Hunter Lewis and William Beale.

QUIET CITY.
Manchester was as quiet last night as upon a Sabbath day with the exception of the number of people on the streets.

There was nothing of unusual morning, and up to a late hour only a few had been arrested, and he was charged with drunkenness.

MAYOR'S COURT.
Mayor Maurice yesterday fined George Raines, Arthur Moore and Alonzo Chish-holm $250 each for creating a disturbance on the streets and Chisholm was reported for allowing their horses to run at large.

ANNUAL OUTING.
The annual outing of the "regulars" will be held to-day at or near the Cypress Hills. Some twenty citizens of the city have for several years past been accustomed to take one Sunday off each year and enjoy a day of freedom near the waters of the majestic creek that flows serenely through Chesterfield county and empties into the noble James river near Bristol.

The occasion this year has been somewhat delayed by circumstances, it will nevertheless be none the less a most enjoyable one. The best chef the city has ever known will make the Brunswick stew.

HARRISON BROTHERS are now occupying their new store at Fifteenth and Hull Streets. The store is a new one and has just been completed.

WARDEN ALLAGOOD HAS RESIGNED

Commission Finds That He Committed an Error, but Charges Were Malicious.

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, GA., August 15.—The Georgia Prison Commission, which has been investigating the whipping of Mamie De Cris, a white woman convict at the State prison farm, made its report to-day.

With the report came the announcement of the resignation and its acceptance by the commission of Warden Allagood, who whose conduct in punishing Mamie De Cris was under investigation. The charges of improper proposals by Allagood, alleged other female convicts are found "absolutely false and malicious." The report says the warden acted entirely within the authority in whipping Miss De Cris, and that he was led to it by extreme aggra-vation.

The commission concludes that this particular punishment was an error on the part of the warden, "who, recognizing his usefulness may have been impaired by reason of the prejudice, which has been created against him by gross misrepresentation of the facts of the case," has voluntarily tendered his resignation.

A CONNECTING LINK
Chesapeake and Ohio to Join its Two Lines Across Albemarle.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., Aug. 15.— The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway has part of Albemarle, connecting the main line of the Chesapeake and Ohio at Kes-wick with the James River division. The engineer in charge of the survey, Mr. J. of the proposed line is to eliminate the heavy grade across the Blue Ridge Mountains in the transportation of freight. If this is true, and if such line is built, it would have the Chesapeake and Ohio between Clifton Forge and Keswick almost entirely a passenger and local freight road.

STOCKHOLDERS MEET
Messrs. Gaff and Adams Resign Offices in Auto-Bus Company.

The Public Service Company, which proposes to operate a line of auto-buses between the city and the country, has much to be said about which so much has been said and written, held a meeting of the stockholders at Sanger Hall last night, which was a very interesting one.

What transpired at the meeting it is difficult to ascertain, further than that it was a lively meeting. It became known afterward that the project of the auto-bus line, the projectors of the enterprise, had resigned the presidency and vice-presidency, respectively. Their resignations were accepted, but will be substantiated at a meeting to be held later.

Mr. Gaff, when seen and asked the cause of his resignation, stated that there might be a reorganization.

Various matters in connection with the project were discussed, but the subject of choosing a general manager, it is understood, did not come up at all. It is not certain that such an office will be created.

The charter of the company, though drawn some time ago, has never been presented, but is expected to be soon.
Efforts to ascertain just how much money has been subscribed fail to elicit any definite information, the response being that the stockholders are not yet ready to be turned in yet. The men interested will not even attempt to approximate the amount. The next meeting will be held at the same place at the call of the president.

years. It was started in the 'sixties by Mr. Francis Laube, father of Mr. Joseph Laube, and the latter succeeded his father in the business, and it was due to failing health that he was forced to retire some

Vice-Chancellor Pitney Calls It Cheating.

SAYS HE IS OLD-FASHION'D

Has it Ground Into Him that Inflating Stock and Unloading It on the Public is Robbery—Butler Voting Trust.

(By Associated Press.)
NEWARK, N. J., August 15.—Argument on the application of Edwin A. McAlpin and others for the appointment of a receiver for the Universal Tobacco Company was heard to-day before Vice-Chancellor Pitney by Attorney-General Robert H. McCarter, of counsel for the defendant corporation.

Mr. McCarter said that when George P. and William H. Butler, W. Bourke Cooker and H. C. Wesscott agreed to put money in the company, which was to be financed by Titford, it was with the understanding that the voting trust should exist, and that Frank Titford and Henry R. Wilson were to remain in the company in the attempt to fight the American Tobacco Company. But instead of doing so Mr. McCarter said Titford and Wilson got out when they had got what they wanted, and did not consider the obligation they were under to the enterprise. He asked: "Where are those men who have made millions out of the scheme by selling out?"

Vice-Chancellor Pitney, interrupting, said: "It is not quite agreeable to me that they made millions. I assume that they made about $500,000, less expenses.
What they got beyond that was by cheating somebody."

At the close of Mr. McCarter's argument, Wheeler H. Peckham followed for the defendant. He was interrupted by the Vice-Chancellor, who said:

"You know, and I know, and everybody ought to know, that stock is inflated to unload it on the public. I consider it a fraud, and the people who buy are fools.
The man who inflates the stock takes advantage of the old adage, 'All fools are not yet dead.' It may be an old-fashioned idea, but it is ground into me, and I am afraid I cannot shake it."

Vice-Chancellor Pitney suggested, before the hearing of the argument began to-day that he was fully decided that he could not interfere with the Butler voting trust at this time.

was convicted of the murder of Mrs. Dora Beaver Wednesday, and who has been sentenced to hang Thursday, September 18th, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, this morning confessed the crime.
The engineer in charge of the survey, Mr. J.
of the proposed line is to eliminate the
heavy grade across the Blue Ridge Mountains in the transportation of freight. If
this is true, and if such line is built,
it would have the Chesapeake and
Ohio between Clifton Forge and Keswick
almost entirely a passenger and local freight road.
